

CPCU SOCIETY- EUROPE AND KATIE SCHOOL OF INSURANCE AND RISK MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE

1755 CATASTROPHE CONFERENCE - PREDICT & PREPARE

Location: Lisbon, Portugal

Date: July 3rd to July 5th, 2025

Agenda Items

July 3, 2025

18:00 – 19:30

Welcome drinks and petiscos

Hotel Do Chiado –
Rooftop Bar

July 4, 2025

10:00 – 13:00

CPCU Europe/Katie School of Insurance –1755
Catastrophe Open Market Conference

Vintage Hotel

- ◇ Welcome and Introduction – Jim Jones, MBA
CPCU, Executive Director, Katie School, Illinois
State University
- ◇ CPCU Society's President's message – Sherry
McFadden, CPCU, ChFC, CLU, FLMI
- ◇ Analyzing and predicting the impacts of natural and man-made disasters - Nikita Khemka, Senior Manager, Catastrophe and Exposure Management for Xceedance
- ◇ Nat Cat in Portugal – focus on earthquake -
Miguel Araujo, Gallagher Re – Executive Director
- ◇ Parametric solutions for resilience – Toby Sansom,
AXA Climate – Risk Analyst
- ◇ Resilient Architecture. The history of Portuguese resilience efforts in architecture from 1755 to today. Professor João Appleton. Civil Engineer and Managing Partner at A2P

◇ ILS – finance for the future

13:30 – 15:00	CPCU Europe members and guest's lunch	Vintage Hotel
15:30 – 17:30	CPCU Europe Chapter meeting 2025 Business Plan review 2026 – 2028 Chapter leadership discussion Leadership reports	Vintage Hotel
19:30 – 22:00	CPCU Members and Guests dinner	To be announced

July 5, 2025

10:00 – 11:30	CPCU Europe – Lisbon Earthquake Museum visit (please note that the space is limited on a first come/first served basis)	Rua Cais da Alfândega Velha, 39
12:00 – 13:30	CPCU Europe/Katie School Desserts at the Pastéis de Belem	Rua de Belém nº 84

Conference is Co-sponsored by

EDMONDSON-MILLER

INSTITUTE FOR THE STUDY OF GLOBAL RISK IN SOCIETY

Illinois State University

Additional information

Please contact Tony Cabot or Georgeta Collins for any questions

Please confirm your interest in the Lisbon Earthquake Museum, and/or Pasteis de Belem visits