Description of Career Opportunity Title: Claims Specialist Sr - Property

The Company is open to considering candidates in NYC and Chicago.

We're adding to our diverse team of experts and are looking to hire those who are committed to building a culture that enables the creation of innovative solutions for our business units and clients. We will consider a range of experience for this role and the offer will be commensurate with that.

The Company

As a member of Munich Re's US operations, we offer the financial strength and stability that comes with being part of the world's preeminent insurance and reinsurance brand. Our risk experts work together to assemble the right mix of products and services to help our clients stay competitive - from traditional reinsurance coverages, to niche and specialty reinsurance and insurance products.

The Opportunity

Future focused and always one step ahead.

The Senior Claims Specialist, Property will be responsible to direct all aspects of file handling for property claims. The Senior Claims Specialist will manage the claim investigation, analyze and determine coverage, evaluate the overall claim, and pursue subrogation as warranted in property insurance claims. This role also gets exposure to handling high profile, national catastrophic property events. The Senior Claims Specialist will manage the litigation process, strategically partner with vendors, participate in mediations, and drive ultimate claim outcomes.

Responsibilities

Core accountabilities include:

Expertly manage all aspects of first party property insurance claims, including general property, energy, and engineering lines of business; including by preparing strategies for settlement negotiations, mediations, arbitrations, and/or trials.

Build strong relationships with, anticipate challenges of and provide creative solutions for insureds consistent with the client centric focus of the MR Group, Business Units and Corporate Centers.

Professionally represent Corporate Claims and the company in meetings with external clients, other Munich Re Group entities, and industry groups, and do so in a manner that favorably reflects upon Munich Re and/or distinguishes Munich Re from its competitors.

Develop and maintain a systematic process for clearly and effectively communicating insights and feedback regarding specific and general coverage, loss, line of business, pricing, and/or risk characteristics to underwriters, actuaries and any other related claim personnel.

Be a self-starter with a focus on client centricity, continuous improvement and excellent communication and collaboration skills.

Manage various special projects developed through own initiative and/or as determined by Manager and deliver timely results with well supported recommendations.

Qualifications

7+ years' experience in handling and managing large Corporate property insurance losses and/or reinsurance claims

Extensive understanding of first party insurance coverage interpretation, loss reserving, loss report analysis, litigation management and client relationship administration

Possesses an in-depth understanding of insurance/reinsurance industry issues through participation in trade and industry group activities and is able to effectively share gained knowledge

College degree required and advanced educational degrees or industry designations and/or certifications preferred

Adept at understanding, embracing and championing change and a shared strategy

Excellent written and oral communication with exceptional overall human interaction skills

Client centric focus along with a self-motivated ability to exercise superb and decisive independent judgment

Proficiency with Microsoft software (Word, Outlook, Excel) and other computer applications including basic data analysis

Willingness to travel in comprehensive service of clients' and the Company's needs

The Company is open to considering candidates in numerous locations, including NYC and Chicago. The salary range posted below reflects market variations across various locations. This role is designated for either Chicago or NYC and reflects multiple geographies. The offer will be adjusted per geography.

The base salary range anticipated for this position is $135,600 -

$226,100, plus opportunity for company bonus based upon a percentage of eligible pay. In addition, the company makes available a variety of benefits to employees, including health insurance coverage, an employee wellness program, life and disability insurance, 401k match, retirement savings plan, paid holidays and paid time off (PTO).

The salary estimate is adjusted to reflect the varying market conditions across different locations, with the with the higher end being more aligned with the New York City job market. Factors that may be used to determine your actual salary include your specific skills, how many years of experience you have and comparison to other employees already in this role. Most candidates will start in the bottom half of the range.

At Munich Re, we see Diversity, Equity and Inclusion as a solution to the challenges and opportunities all around us. Our goal is to foster an inclusive culture and build a workforce that reflects the customers we serve and the communities in which we live and work. We strive to provide a workplace where all of our colleagues feel respected, valued and empowered to achieve their very best every day. We recruit and develop talent with a focus on providing our customers the most innovative products and services.

We are an equal opportunity employer. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions.
