The Maggie Webb Endowed Scholarship

Maggie Webb received her Bachelor of Science degree in 2005 with a major in Business Administration from Illinois State University. She was employed by Von Maur in Omaha, Nebraska. Her life was tragically ended in a random act of violence in December, 2007 at the age of 24. Maggie was known as a strong leader, kind, supportive friend, wise mentor, and someone who always had a lot of energy. She always thought of others first and her smile brought warmth to your heart.

The Maggie Webb Endowed Scholarship was established for the purpose of providing financial support for College of Business students. It recognizes Maggie Webb who died tragically in December, 2007.
