

Sales Operations Manager Internship
Frito-Lay Warehouse/Distribution
Chicago, IL

Overview

Join an industry leader and a winning team! Be a part of a company that sells over $13 billion of Fun Foods! We have an excellent opportunity in one of our Chicago Distribution Centers (Summit, Carol Stream, or Oak Forest) for an Intern to gain exposure to Supply Chain, Logistics, Management and Leadership.

Job Responsibilities

- Develop understanding of Sales Operations (Warehouse/Distribution) processes in an effort to help improve business results in daily front-line operations
- Analyze process steps to help determine where improvements can be implemented to improve business results.
- Develop ability to present business case findings & effectively communicate go forward solutions that resolve current obstacles.
- Develop leadership capability through partnering & working with DC operations managers running daily operations
- Support Continuous Improvement business model execution, to include focus team meeting involvement.
- Project work may consist of the following:
 - Distribution Center time studies
 - Total Labor Efficiency analysis
 - Facility upgrade project work
 - Site Security project work
 - DOT processes
 - Picking accuracy process and analysis
 - Inventory control process and analysis
 - Value in Planning process and analysis

Qualifications

- In pursuit of Bachelors degree in Logistics, Business, Engineering or similar field.
- Demonstrated leadership abilities in coursework and/or extracurricular activities
- Able to analyze and resolve complex problems
- Self motivated individual capable of working within a multidisciplinary team
- Strong communications skills
- Proficient in Microsoft Word, Excel, PowerPoint preferred

Frito-Lay Inc. is an Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer committed to hiring a diverse workforce.