

Job/Intern Posting - AIG VALIC

- AIG VALIC is coming to the Illinois State University campus to recruit for full-time and internship candidates for their Financial Advisor positions. The attached Word file describes the company and the position in more detail.

AIG VALIC is an industry leader in the sales, marketing, and management of long-term investment programs to organizations throughout the country. With an emphasis on providing unparalleled personal, face-to-face service and developing long-term relationships with its clients, the company offers a tremendous training program and highly competitive compensation opportunities including generous benefits.