

Devin Kliethermes

Company Name: COUNTRY Financial

Current Job Title: Communication Analyst

Job Description: Assist Financial Representatives and their assistants with how to system questions.

Description of a Typical Day: I spend majority of the day on the phones with personnel from our agency offices in all of the states we do business in. I assist them with how to system question on new business applications/quotes for all lines of business. Our department works hand in hand with the Communication Center and they handle any technical issues for Financial Representatives.
