Job Description

SCOR P&C is seeking a Claims Associate Intern to work with and to assist the insurance and reinsurance claims team. The candidate will learn about how claims are handled by insurance and/or reinsurance companies and the various aspects of how the claims department operates. He/she will be supervised by a senior member of the claims team and will interact with others both inside and outside the department. Tasks include:

- Analyzing the impact of claims on (re)insurance contracts with oversight from claims experts and/or experienced underwriters and accounting partners;
- Assisting with analyses of workflows among the departments with an eye toward process efficiency and maximizing the flow of meaningful information; and
- Assisting with claims audit preparation and reporting.

This internship will culminate in the presentation of a project to share with the team at the end of the assignment, identifying areas analyzed based on your work.
