Recent Redbird Risk Management Challenge Alumni Attending ISU

- Aaron - 3rd year student in Actuarial Science (Redbird Risk 2013)

Aaron is in his final year at ISU majoring in Actuarial Science. He currently serves as the Treasurer for Gamma Iota Sigma after previously serving as the Actuarial Liaison in the 2016-2017 academic year. Aaron (pictured right with Jim Jones speaking to the 2015 Redbird Risk Management Challenge participants about his experience in the program) has the career goal of becoming a Casualty Actuary Fellow.

- Mark - 2nd year student in Actuarial Science (Redbird Risk 2015)

Mark is in his second year at ISU majoring in Actuarial Science. He is currently pursuing the Certificate in Leadership and Business Acumen and has passed one actuarial exam. Mark (pictured right with Dr. Nat Pope receiving his Redbird Risk certificate) says, "The Redbird Risk Management Challenge was an extremely valuable experience to have before selecting my major and attending a university."

- Justin - 1st year student in Actuarial Science (Redbird Risk 2016)

Justin begins his first year at ISU this fall majoring in Actuarial Science and has already passed on actuarial exam. Justin (pictured right receiving his Redbird Risk certificate with Jim Jones) says, "It was an overwhelmingly positive experience! I left the camp having made some great new friendships and having a much better understanding of the insurance industry. I also left the week with a better understanding of the role of an actuary. After going through the camp, I know that there are endless opportunities in the insurance industry and the actuarial profession."
